REMINISCENCES

Of an Army Officer From East Haven in the War of 1812-A Citizen Vindicated. Frequently there are matters of local Istorical interest that do not involve great amount in dollars and cents, et they may be worthy of notice.

In the month of May, 1876, C. W. Bradley, who was then superintendent of the New Haven almshouse, gave to Christ church of East Haven, the Epis-copal society, a promissory note for the sum of $50 bearing Interest at the rate of 6 per cent. per annum, and to be known forever as "The Susan Thomas Memorial Endowment Fund." The pro-ceeds from said fund were to be applied or the sole benefit of the Sunday school in the purchase of books and papers, in each and every year.

Mrs. Susan Thomas received for a long time a large pension from the United States government. She resided with Mr. Bradley when he was in East Haven, and he was her financial agent for many years. Mrs. Thomas was always foremost in church work, in fact one of its pillars. She died in 1876. Her husband was Captain John A. Thomas, who was an officer in the regular army in the war of 1812, and was at one time captain in the Twenty-fifth regiment of infantry, and also in the command of F. the garrison at Fort Hale. He died in hook. 1841, aged sixty-four years.

To go on with the story it can be Co., Hartford, valve for pneumatic truthfully said that the East Haven tires. church Sunday school had the yearly and regular benefit of this money for years, until the church was closed without services and without a Sunday school for a long time.

At the annual meeting in 1893, when Rev. Mr. VanIngen, the assistant at St. Paul's, was pastor of the church in East Haven, the claim was then made that the church did not recognize Susan Thomas in any way, and that Mr. Bradley was obligated for the full payment of the note with interest without any limitation.

In addition to this it was said that there was no evidence of any kind that Susan Thomas was a factor in the case and that the said note was simply an evidence of indebtedness and must be

The note had now become outlawed and Mr. Bradley taking advantage of fact refused the persistent demands of the society, but promptly of-fered to carry out his original promse to the church and the Sunday school to the letter, pay all back interest, give a new note with an approved endorser. This the management—the wardens and vestrymen—refused to accept, and a mit at 'aw was threatened.

The matter has rested-nearly two ears-until the present time. On Eastr Monday of this year, at the close f the annual meeting of the parish, n examination was made of a package of valuable papers belonging to the East Haven church, and which had been held by the late Charles T. Hemngway, a former treasurer of the so-

In this bundle of papers was found : long written document dated May, 1876, showing the design of Mr. Bradley's gift and blank receipts to be used in the disbursement of the earnings of the memorial fund. The following is a
